

Privacy Statement

PACE Soccer is committed to the collection, use and disclosure of personal information in accordance with the British Columbia Personal Information Privacy Act (PIPA).

WHAT IS PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Personal Information is any information that can identify an individual, such as name, home address, phone number, email address. Personal information also refers to any information about an identifiable individual, such as medical information, work history, disciplinary history or educational/training qualifications.

COLLECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

PIPA allows for the collection, use and disclosure of personal information for purposes reasonably associated with the operation and administration of PACE. PACE will obtain consent from individuals if we wish to use personal information for any other purpose or before collecting personal information from, or providing personal information to, parties not affiliated with PACE.

The following mandatory information is collected:

- i. Players: first name, last name, date of birth, phone number, address, postal code and proof of player age;
- ii. Coaches: first name, last name, address, postal code, phone number and email address, coach qualifications and completion dates (if applicable);
- iii. Officials: first name, last name, address, postal code, phone number, email address, course qualifications and completion dates;
- iv. Board Members: first name, last name, address, postal code, phone number, email address;
- v. Essential/Emergency medical information for all club members.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

PACE Soccer does not sell or rent personal information to any organization or person for any reason.

As noted above an, in order to participate in PACE Soccer, there are mandatory pieces of personal information that must be obtained and disclosed to others (e.g., BC Soccer). Individuals may decline to provide non-mandatory personal information and/or may make a written request to have the information removed once provided.

Personal information may be contained within team lists used internally by coaches, etc. for club administration purposes.

RETENTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We do not share your personal information without your consent with any third-party organizations.

PACE retains your personal information only as long as it is required for our business relationship or as required by federal or provincial laws.